

Gentlemen,
I pay a fee for the right to receive XM Radio. As a consumer I expect you to protect my right to choose which services I want.

Let the market place decide what services are to be offered. As a business owner I compete every day. I don't want a government agency to tell me what I can hear on my radio